PUBLIC PARTICIPATION:

Several homeowners whose property borders the Steers Park were in attendance stating that they see an increase use of the staging area and transfer station. The Board explained that dirt that had been stock piled there was being transferred to Scudder Park. The neighbors also showed pictures of unsightly containers and debris. The Board stated they would talk to the Little League who is responsible for those areas depicted in the pictures. Shane Rodgers, stated he had a report from the DEC stating the material being dewatered on the site is full of toxic metals and other hazardous material. Mr. Brojer explained that the DEC has inspected the site several times and the area is all in compliance. Helena Duszkievicz stated that on several occasions, very early in the morning she has heard trucks coming and going, sometimes as earlier as 5:00 AM. She questioned what the trucks were doing there that early, and that maybe it was suspicious activity. The Board stated that would look into why the trucks were there so early but at tonight's meeting they had no answers.
